PLAINTIFF'S SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE OF EXPERT WITNESS

Pursuant to Practice Book §13-4, et seq., the plaintiff, Jonathan Shapiro, hereby supplements the disclosure of expert witnesses whom he expects to call at the time of trial, as well as documents and records he may submit into evidence in lieu of the live testimony of expert witnesses.

1. Dr. Louis Cofrancesco, DC, Cofrancesco Chiropractic & Healing Arts, 260 Amity Road Woodbridge, CT 06525

A. The subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify:

If called to testify or introduced through the medical records, it is anticipated that Dr. Cofrancesco will testify, consistent with the medical records, concerning the diagnosis, findings, treatment, and prognosis with respect to the plaintiff's injuries and conditions, as well as the causal relation of same to the incident alleged in the Complaint.

Dr. Cofrancesco will testify as to the plaintiff's physical condition during examination and treatment between December 24, 2013 and May 14, 2015 (as well as any subsequent treatment). Dr. Cofrancesco will testify that, inter alia, the plaintiff suffers from continuous pain with 40% less range of motion in cervical and lumbar regions as a result of the incident alleged in the Complaint.

If called to testify, it is expected that Dr. Cofrancesco will testify that the plaintiff, as a result of his injuries from the incident alleged in the Complaint, will require future treatment, as well as the expected costs for the same.

Dr. Cofrancesco is also expected to testify, consistent with his medical reports and records, that the plaintiff suffered a 5% permanent partial impairment to his Cervical Spine and a 5% permanent partial impairment to his Lumbar Spine as a result of his injuries sustained in this incident.

B. The substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert may be expected to testify:

If called to testify, Dr. Cofrancesco will testify that the plaintiff's injuries and conditions, treatment, physical condition, mental condition, pain and suffering, including limitations and restrictions and resulting effects, including permanent effects thereof, were caused and/or aggravated by the incident alleged in the Complaint and that the treatment was reasonable with respect to prevailing medical costs in the community. Dr. Cofrancesco will also testify in accordance with the medical reports that have been supplied through discovery, as well as with the results of his examination and treatment of the plaintiff and review of his medical records.

Dr. Cofrancesco will also testify about the plaintiff's prognosis and will further testify that the plaintiff will require treatment in the future. Dr. Cofrancesco is also expected to testify about the likelihood of future treatment and the expected frequency and cost of such future treatment.

Dr. Cofrancesco is also expected to testify, consistent with his medical reports and records, that the plaintiff suffered a 5% permanent partial impairment to his Cervical Spine and a 5% permanent partial impairment to his Lumbar Spine and as a result of his injuries sustained in this incident.

C. Summary of the grounds for each opinion of the expert:

The opinions of Dr. Cofrancesco will be based upon the following: the history, examination, treatment, review of medical records and/or opinions of other medical practitioners regarding the plaintiff, Dr. Cofrancesco's evaluation of the plaintiff and his own education, training, knowledge and experience.
